

Presented by
KIMMEL CENTER PRESENTS citi

Day of the Dead CELEBRATION

Saturday, October 25 | Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts

6pm   Commonwealth Plaza DAY OF THE DEAD EXHIBIT Presented in partnership with the Mexican Cultural Center The Day of the Dead is a longstanding Mexican holiday that combines time-honored native rituals with traditional Spanish catholic beliefs. Cesar Viveros along with local cultural organizations will host an exhibit of altars and perform a ritual ceremony as is traditional custom in Mexico. This event is FREE and open to the public.	7:30pm   Perlman Theater SOL Y CANTO AND MELODIC VISION: "NOCHE DE MUERTOS" Breathe the air of Mexico's colorful folk life to discover that death really is as natural as living. Led by influential Puerto Rican/Argentine vocalist Rosi Amador and award-winning guitarist-composer Brian Amador of New Mexico, audiences are taken on a journey through one of Mexico's favorite traditional holidays! This performance is part of the American Express Cultural Heritage Series. Tickets $26, $35
---	--

KIMMELCENTER.ORG | 215.893.1999